

APPENDIX C: KEY FOOD RECOVERY ORGANIZATIONS IN FRESNO COUNTY

Organization	City	Phone:	Summary of Services	Accepted Food	Formal Donation Agreement Required	Website
Bulldog Pantry/Lutheran Campus Ministry of Fresno	Fresno	559-224-9052	Student-run food pantry. Looking for both food and monetary donations to support their food distribution efforts.	Food is sourced from CCFB and donations. Accepts donations of non-perishable food.	Unknown.	Link
Butler Pentecostal Church-Pantry	Fresno	559-268-0094	Partnered with the CCFB. Offers a food pantry funded by donations from church members and grants. Also partners with a local elementary school for a School Lunch Rescue Program, where they rescue and distribute unused fruits, vegetables, and snacks.	Food is sourced from CCFB and Elementary Schools.	Unknown.	Link
Catholic Charities Diocese of Fresno	Fresno	559-237-0851	Receive donations from the Central California Food Bank and other partner organizations. CCDOF manages a healthy neighborhood market program and a rural outreach program. New donation partners are always welcome.	Food is sourced from CCFB and donations. Food that does not meet CCDOF's nutritional requirements (e.g. cakes, pastries, and sugary drinks) are redistributed to partner organizations.	No contract is required.	Link

Organization	City	Phone:	Summary of Services	Accepted Food	Formal Donation Agreement Required	Website
Central California Food Bank	Fresno	559-237-3663	The largest food recovery organization serving Fresno County. CCFB serves more than 280,000 people each month and provides food to over 220 partner agencies.	Food is sourced from local farmers; retail surplus or damaged items; and purchased from government and retail. Businesses in Fresno County may donate shelf-stable food items and perishable food items that are at least one week away from expiration.	Contracts are required.	Link
Fresno Asian Business Institute and Resource Center	Fresno	559-438-9680	Supports Asian American business owners in Central California. Recently ran a buyback, where they purchased fruits and vegetables growers aren't able to sell due to the pandemic and then gave the produce back to communities facing food insecurity.	Produce from local farmers.	Unknown.	Link

Organization	City	Phone:	Summary of Services	Accepted Food	Formal Donation Agreement Required	Website
Fresno Central SDA Community Services	Fresno	559-221-4247	Operates food pantries. Receive donated food from CCFB and Whole Foods. They also purchase additional food from CCFB.	Food is sourced from CCFB and retailers. Donations of produce, prepared food, and shelf-stable foods are accepted.	Contracts are required through CCFB.	Link
Fresno Metro Ministry	Fresno	559-485-1416	Operates Food to Share, a community food partnership. Transport food from donors to food distribution organizations. Looking to expand their operations.	Donations of produce, prepared food, and shelf-stable foods are accepted.	Contracts are required.	Link
Fresno Rescue Mission	Fresno	559-268-0839	Receive food donations from local businesses and individuals. Provide three meals a day at their campus. Distribute food to other local nonprofit agencies.	Donations are sourced from retailers and community members. Produce, perishable foods, non-perishable foods, and pre-packaged items are accepted for donation.	No contract is required.	Link
Kerman Community Food Bank	Kerman	559-846-9855	Food is sourced from community members and the Food Bank is open to the public.	Food is sourced from community donations to the Food Bank and at Farmers Markets.	Unknown.	Link

Organization	City	Phone:	Summary of Services	Accepted Food	Formal Donation Agreement Required	Website
Poverello House	Fresno	559-498-6988	Picks up donations from retail partners on a regular basis. They also receive donations from freight carriers who have food that was rejected by retail stores. Operate a central kitchen. Approximately 50% of meals are distributed directly from the kitchen and 50% of the meals are distributed through partner organizations. Poverello house also distributes emergency food bags for Catholic Charities Diocese of Fresno as requested.	Food is sourced from CCFB, retailers, and food distributors. Donations of alcohol are not accepted. Donations must have date labels (as appropriate) and not be past expiration.	Contracts are required for retail food donations that require pickup service. Delivered donations do not require a contract.	Link
The Salvation Army Clovis	Clovis	559 298-6797	Receive donations from the CCFB and retail partners. Usually have annual canned good drives as well.	Food is sourced from CCFB and retailers. Donations of produce and shelf-stable foods are accepted. Prepared food and hot meals are not accepted at this time.	Contracts are required.	Link
The Salvation Army Fresno	Fresno	559 233-0138	Accepts food and monetary donations.	Food is sourced from CCFB and retailers. Donations of produce and shelf-stable foods are accepted.	Unknown.	Link